CALL FOR MOTIVATIONAL, KEYNOTE AND BREAK OUT PRESENTATIONS

Event Concept / Mission:

The 2015 First Nations Business Builder Series will provide insightful information to help promote entrepreneurial success for First Nations people.

The 2015 Series will provide a platform for business owners, service providers, and First Nations people to come together to share their perspectives, needs, concerns, expectations, strategies, and effective practices in entrepreneurship.

There will be a motivational speaker, two days of two (2) breakout sessions, a lunchtime guest speaker, information and networking booths, and an evening mixer. This symposium will be attended by business owners, community leaders, service providers, students and anyone with a passion to own and operate their own business along with opportunity to network among each other.

The objectives of the Business Building Series are:

1. To share perspectives and practices for First Nations people who own or have a desire to own their own business.
2. To create partnerships and build capacity within the business community.

Participants attending the symposium will benefit from new contacts, information, and learning. Series delegates will be primarily comprised of First Nations entrepreneurs, business community representatives, and professionals working in the field of economic development – these professionals will include managers, business support officers, and lending officers.
